

WEEK TEN TERMS

English I and II

ENGLISH II

EXPOUND

to explain in detail; to clarify

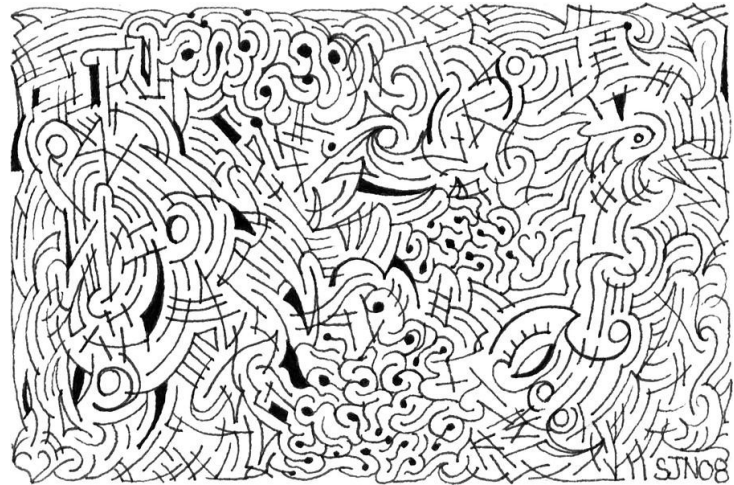

CAJOLE

to persuade with false promises and flattery

INSCRUTABLE

not easily understood; hard to fathom

BALK

to refuse stubbornly or abruptly; to stop short and refuse to go on

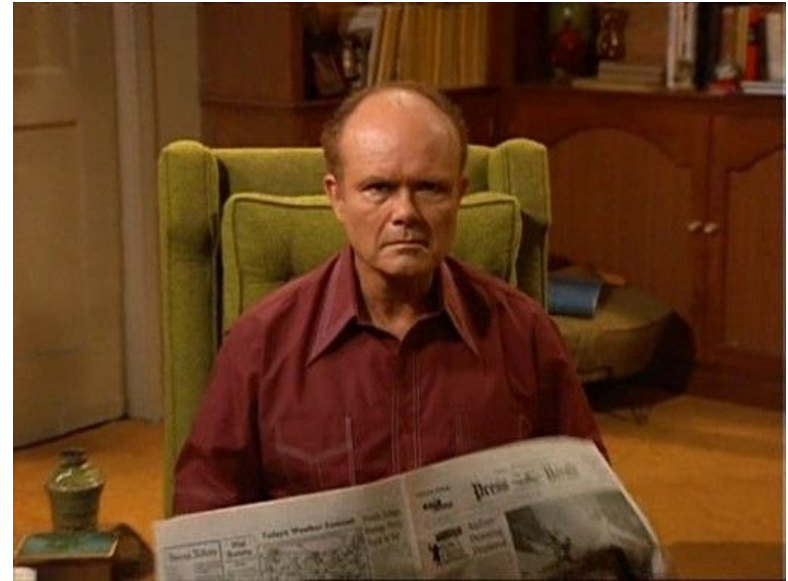

ACRIMONY

ill-natured, bitter hostility

DOUR

stern and ill-humored

EXULT

to rejoice; to feel triumphant

OMNISCIENT

having unlimited knowledge; all-knowing

FEASIBLE

reasonable; capable of being carried out

FIASCO

a complete, ridiculous failure

ENGLISH I TERMS

FALLIBLE

capable of error

BLATANT

obvious; too conspicuous

DAWDLE

to waste time

A Day in the Life of a Procrastinator.

AFFILIATE

an associate; a partner

FAWN

to act slavishly submissive

CALUMNY

a false and malicious accusation

BERATE

to scold or rebuke severely and at length

MINION

a submissive, servile follower

DESOLATE

lonely; forlorn; uninhabited; barren

BANE

the cause of ruin, harm, distress, or death

